Business Services for Subscribers

Appreciation must be expressed for the number and the quality of the advertisements in this issue. Without the revenue derived from this source, the price of The Directory to its subscribers would be prohibitive. The advertisers in the front and rear sections have been carefully selected and meticulously scrutinized to assure that their statements may be accepted with confidence.

To be of greater service, the comprehensive Classified Buyers Guide contains 553 different product and service classifications. This enables one to find almost any product or service needed by church, school or institution as indexed in the thousands of source listings which follow.

Whenever you want to know "who makes it," "who supplies it," or "who can do it" — consult this Buyers Guide presented below for your greater convenience.

Subscribers who make it a practice to study the Classified Index and the advertisements to which it is the key, find it quickly solves their problems of supply, equipment and maintenance.

There are firms who supply or seek to sell their products and services to the Catholic Church, who are not acceptable as advertisers in these pages. Hence, the advertisers listed below can be consulted and utilized without hesitation and with confidence.

Your mention of The Official Catholic Directory when responding to advertisements will be helpful to you as well as to the advertisers and the publishers.

We proudly present this extensive and comprehensive Classified Buyers Guide as an aid and tool for your Administrators.

THOMAS H. WALSH, Marketing Manager

"The Good News Bible has particular importance, because now all English speaking Christians in the United States of America have at reasonable cost one Bible which they can read and easily understand. This new publication of the Bible is a service to Christianity by the American Bible Society. Since some editions carry an imprimatur and include the Deuterocanonical/ Apocrypha Books between the Old and New Testaments, I anticipate that this text will be warmly received in Catholic schools, religious education classes and prayer groups."
—The Most Rev. John F. Whealon, Archbishop of Hartford

In just one year, it's become the best-selling English program in America.

Macmillan's SERIES E.

Teachers and students alike praise it. A structured focus on basic skills makes it manageable. And its consistent 3-part organization around language skills, practical communication, and creative expression assures successful learning and teaching experiences.

The grammar is especially well organized. A single focus in each unit simplifies mastery of the usage, mechanics, spelling, and vocabulary related to that topic.

Structured development of writing skills—SERIES E is the only English program that offers it—provides for many effective writing experiences. Students are guided step by step from analyzing words to writing sentences, paragraphs, and longer compositions.

And—throughout the program—controlled readability keeps instruction understandable.

But these are only some of the features that account for SERIES E's remarkable success. Your Macmillan representative would be happy to share others with you—like the easy to use Teacher's Editions or the NEW FOR 1980—SERIES E KINDERGARTEN PROGRAM. This is a readiness program that provides children with a basic understanding of oral and written language. The program includes spirit masters, 8 colorful posters, and a Teacher's Edition.

SERIES E: Macmillan English.

The Catholic Tradition

2000 Years of Great Writings

The Catholic Tradition puts the entire written heritage of the Catholic faith at your fingertips. This fourteen volume anthology of great Catholic books weaves together 2,000 years of Catholicism—from the Fathers of the Church up to today.

The twentieth century has become one of the most exciting ages of Catholic writing; more than half of the writers in The Catholic Tradition are our contemporaries. Like the Church Fathers and the monks of the Middle Ages, these modern writers have shaped the Catholic Church we know today.

Karl Rahner and Hans Küng are both featured, reflecting the conservative and liberal factions of post-Vatican II theological controversy. Raymond E. Brown is represented by his brilliant writings on sacred scripture. Modern problems of personal ethics are explored by writers such as Bernard Häring, and social concern by Gustavo Gutierrez in his famous book, Liberation Theology.

The Catholic Tradition is a fresh view of Catholicism. It captures the ancient wisdom and beliefs of the 2,000 year old institution, yet at the same time brings to life the vitality and diversity of the Church today.

Fourteen volumes $275.00

Dominican Paschal Candle

Traditional Easter Candle

Celebrating 83 YEARS 1897-1980

Paschal candles by Cathedral: specialists in beeswax candles since 1897.

CATHEDRAL's finest craftsmanship is expressed in the rich symbolism of its Paschal candles of pure, natural beeswax. Observing exact liturgical requirements, plain or beautifully decorated with raised wax and gold leaf ornaments, they glow in steadfast reverence for the rituals and antiquity of the Church. Markings of Alpha, Omega and year date are outlined to be incised for the Easter Vigil Service on our traditional Paschal candle.

Our Dominican style candle was designed by Sister Mary Pia, a Dominican nun.

The MAAS-ROWE Chronobell

The SOUND of bells for LESS than the cost of a single bell!

Not a tape recording, the Chronobell produces the bell sound by striking tuned metal bars. The beautiful tone is amplified millions of times to the full sonority of great cast bells.

Because the Chronobell does not depend on tape cartridges it can ring the bells you need when you need them without the need for changing tapes. Of course, a cartridge Carillon tape player can be added whenever automatic hymn playing is desired.

A typical Chronobell schedule would include the following clock controlled traditional bell rings. (Model CH4W)

- Sunday Mass Calls
- Weekday Mass Calls
- Saturday Mass Calls

- Wedding Peal • Swinging Bell • Funeral Toll

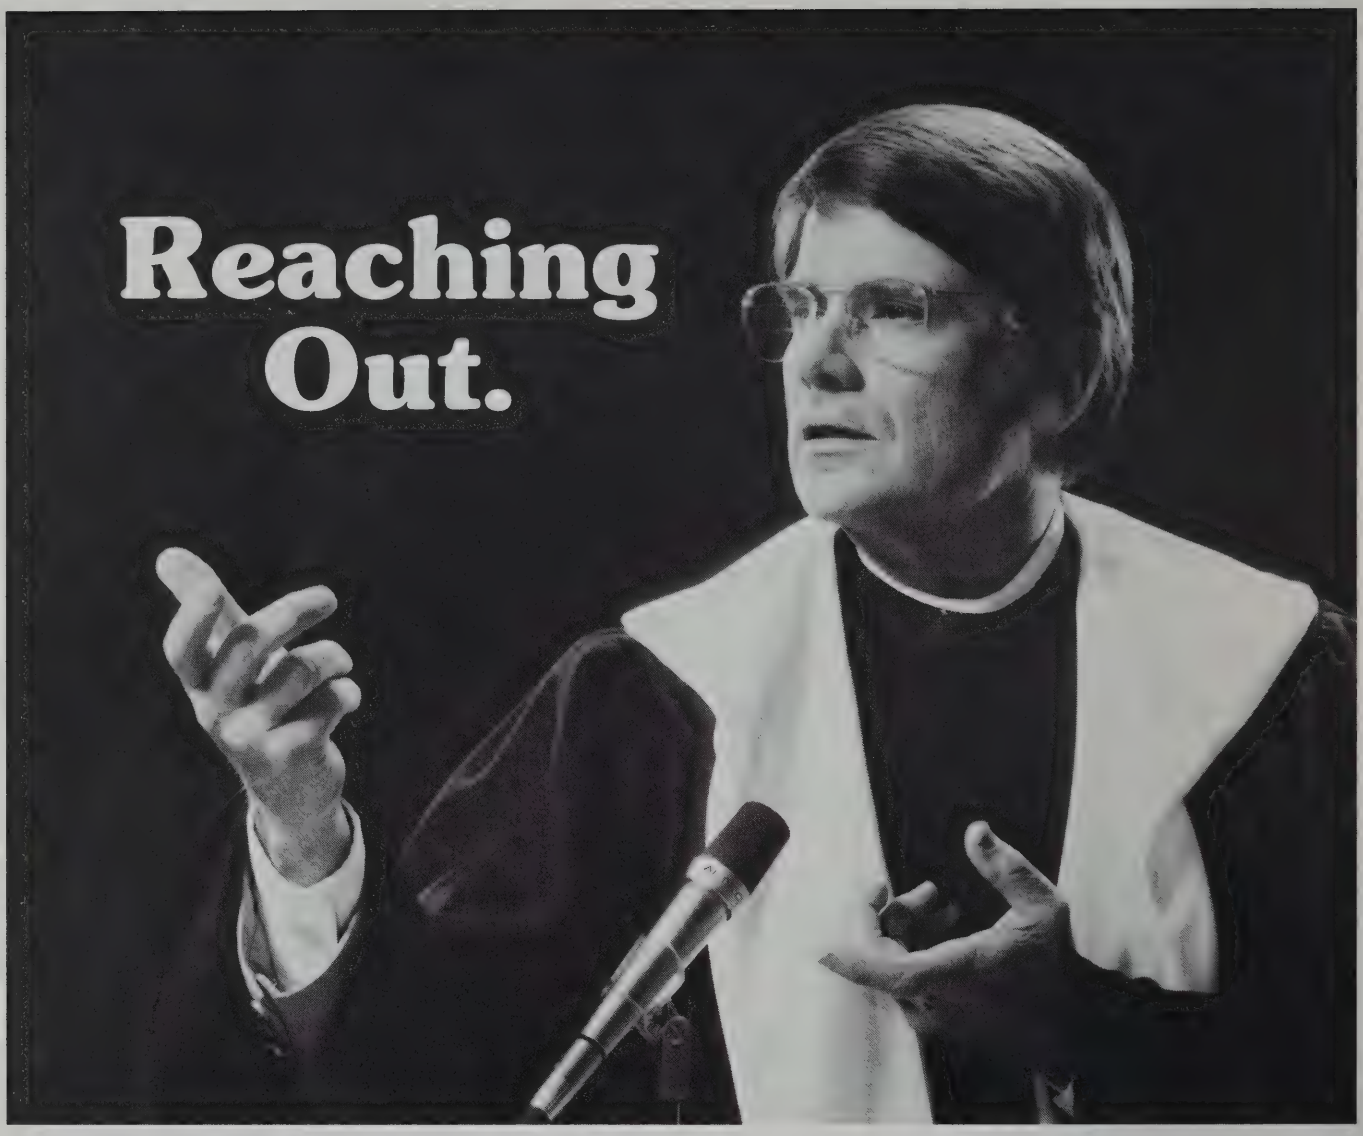
Cartridge Carillon

UTILIZES RECORDED TAPE CARTRIDGES

When added to any Chronobell, the Cartridge Carillon will automatically play prerecorded hymns at times controlled by the Chronobell program clock. It is also available as a separate system for those who desire mostly hymn playing with only occasional service bells. These can be provided for by changing tape cartridges. A large library of standard cartridges is available, or custom recordings will be made for your particular requirements.

OTHER PRODUCTS

CAST BELLS: Just because our Chronobell costs less than cast bells doesn't mean we don't offer the real thing too! Our genuine bronze bells are cast to your order in Holland and can include the decoration or inscription you specify. Electric ringers and all the usual accessories are provided to suit your requirements.



CHIMES AND CARILLONS: Maas-Rowe builds amplified Carillons up to 246 bells and can connect the instrument to play from most pipe or electronic organs. If you are planning a new organ, consider having it prepared for the future addition of a carillon. No automatic system can equal a live performance by your own organist.

DECORATIVE BELL SHELLS: These aluminum "bells" can enhance the appearance of your tower when cast bells are not practical for cost or structural reasons.

OUR "CARILLON CONSULTANTS" are anxious to meet you and provide the information you need to make a sound decision. Write or call collect today!

Rambusch. Three generations of commitment, from the smallest detail to an entire cathedral.

RAMBUSCH

You'll find this commitment exemplified in Saint Matthew's Church in Champaign, Illinois, and in churches throughout the country. It is a commitment to excellence...and it has been continuous since the turn of the century.

Over the years, it has allowed Rambusch the full expression of its diverse capabilities. The skilled designers and artisans of Rambusch's unique art and craft studios have created with stained glass, metal, mosaic, marble, wood, fabric, paint and lighting.

Their efforts have included windows, murals, statues, sanctuary furnishings, and comprehensive lighting systems engineered and fabricated by Rambusch to meet even the technological demands of television.

Whether initiating a concept, or restoring a historic one...in collaboration with architects, committees, church or laymen ...Rambusch can bring to fruition a result that honors the profound strength and righteousness of the faith.

Hints and Helps

FOR THOSE WHO USE THE OFFICIAL CATHOLIC DIRECTORY

Each year the editors of The Official Catholic Directory seek added ways of serving their subscribers. Although the book may never answer every question, this is the conscientious goal; its format, arrangement and editorial features are directed toward the convenience and needs of the public. Nor does this policy stop with the editorial content. The advertisers are accepted with the user of the Directory in mind. It is policy that advertisers are selected rather than solicited. Each advertiser is screened for business integrity and for the usefulness of the product and/or service offered to the potential customer.

GENERAL PLAN

For the benefit of the subscriber and a more efficient use of The Official Catholic Directory and its helpful cross references, a summary of the Contents and their meaning follows:

1. The Governing Bodies in Vatican City

All the officials, from the Pope through the College of Cardinals. The duties of each of the Sacred Congregations, Offices, and officials; the National Colleges in Rome, together with a chronological table of the Popes.

2. Special listing of the organization and personnel of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops and the United States Catholic Conference

The National Body of Bishops with headquarters in Washington, D.C.

3. The Provinces of the United States

All the archdioceses and dioceses of the United States arranged under the provinces to which they belong. All archbishops and bishops together with appointment and consecration dates.

4. Reports from archdioceses and dioceses of the United States

The most detailed information on the Catholic Church in the United States.

5. Reports on U. S. Possessions and those parts of the world in which American priests and Religious engage in missionary work

This section contains information on foreign territories similar to that found in the preceding one concerning the Catholic Church in the United States.

6. General Statistics on Religious Orders of Men and Women

Each Religious Order lists the number of provinces it maintains; the superiors of the provinces; the number of various classes of religious in the province; the number and kind of institutions it serves or maintains; and the dioceses in which its members are working. It is preceded by an exhaustive cross index.

7. A special listing of those societies engaged in missionary work

Presents the nature of their work, the territories in which their members are engaged and the local boards in various cities which aid or support them.

8. Alphabetical Place List

The cities, towns and villages where there is a church with a resident priest or a Catholic institution, or both, together with the abbreviations of the archdiocese or diocese to which it belongs. A key to these abbreviations follows the alphabetical list of places.

9. List of the Hierarchy of the United States

Alphabetically arranged with their addresses.

10. List of the Hierarchy of the United States

Arranged according to their Seniority.

11. An alphabetical List of the Clergy

Listed are the secular and regular clergy, the diocese to which each belongs, the city and church or institution at which he now resides, or his last known address.

12. Necrology of the United States Hierarchy and Clergy

All those prelates and priests who have died since the last issue of the Directory together with their last address and date of death.

13. A General Summary

A general recapitulation of 63 categories of statistics of each archdiocese and diocese. Arranged geographically according to the Bureau of the Census divisions, the diocesan, state and national totals are presented.

HELPFUL SUGGESTIONS

A Diocese

The format for each archdiocese and diocese is uniform. The Curia under the bishop is listed first, with various diocesan offices. The parishes of the See city follow, after which are listed the parishes in each city alphabetically arranged according to city. With each church are listed the parochial schools, missions, stations, and cemeteries associated with it. (Parochial cemeteries are identified by [CEM]; interparochial or joint cemeteries by [JC].) Following this appear the institutions of the diocese, following closely the order of their presentation in the General Recapitulation. Postal Zip codes are printed following street addresses. After the institutional listings, there are summaries of the Religious Communities of Men and of Women; a list of diocesan cemeteries, if any; a necrology of clergy, and finally a recapitulation of Statistics.

Hierarchy

If the name of a prelate is known, look in the Alphabetical List of the Cardinals, Archbishops, Bishops and Abbots. For information regarding his seniority, consult the Seniority List of Bishops.

Officials

The official Curia appears at the beginning of each archdiocese and diocese.

Places

The cities and towns are arranged in alphabetical order, followed by the abbreviation of the archdiocese or diocese where located. A key to the diocesan abbreviations is found immediately following the Alphabetical List of Places.

Statistics

The recapitulation at the end of each archdiocese and diocese gives the number of institutions and the number of people attending them. State and national totals are found on an open-out chart located toward the rear of the Directory.

Diocesan Priests

If the priest's name is known, consult the Alphabetical Clergy List. If a number in brackets appears, it denotes a church bearing that number. The numbers are used for the larger cities. If the city or town is known, consult the Alphabetical List of Places. This gives the diocese. The first priest's name in a parish listing is that of the pastor unless otherwise indicated.

Religious Order Priests

Those priests belonging to Religious Orders are listed at the churches and institutions they serve. A list of the Religious Communities of Men active in a diocese, and the churches and institutions at which they are stationed appears at the end of each Diocese. The Index to Religious Orders presents more detailed and comprehensive information concerning the Orders.

Brothers

Immediately following the Statistics on Religious Orders of Priests is found the Orders of Brothers who are independent of Religious Orders of Priests. Those brothers who belong to Religious Orders of Priests are listed with their Order in the section devoted to Religious Orders of Priests.

Sisters

General information concerning Religious Orders of Women is found in the Statistics of Religious Orders section. Here is found the number of sisters, postulants, novices, etc. of each province, the number and kind of institutions they maintain or serve, and dioceses in which they are represented. Particular information is found at the end of each diocesan listing.

PART I

Hierarchy of the Catholic Church

The Hierchy, as the supreme governing body of the Catholic Church, consists of the Roman Pontiff, the successor of Peter, and the Bishops joined together with him in one apostolic college to provide for the common good of the Church. The Cardinals, now always bishops, serve as the chief counsellors of the Roman Pontiff. The Pope is further assisted by the departments of the Roman Curia. The bishops, of whom some bear the titles of Patriarch and Archbishop, are united with the Roman Pontiff in the governance of the whole Church; the bishops, when assigned to particular Sees, are individually responsible for the teaching, sanctification and governance of their particular Church. Apostolic Vicars and Prefects together with certain Abbots and other Prelates are also joined in this work.

HIS HOLINESS THE POPE

BISHOP OF ROME AND VICAR OF JESUS CHRIST,
SUCCESSOR OF ST. PETER, PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES,
SUPREME PONTIFF OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH.
PATRIARCH OF THE WEST, PRIMATE OF ITALY.
ARCHBISHOP AND METROPOLITAN OF THE ROMAN PROVINCE, SOVEREIGN OF VATICAN CITY.

JOHN PAUL II

KAROL WOJTYLA

The direct successor of St. Peter was born in Wadowice, Diocese of Krakow, May 18, 1920; ordained Priest, Nov. 1, 1946; appointed Bishop of Ombi July 4, 1958; Proclaimed and created Cardinal June 26, 1967. Elected Pope, Oct. 16, 1978; installed Oct. 22, 1978.

VATICAN CITY

By virtue of the concordat signed on February 11, 1929, and ratified on June 7, 1929, the complete and independent authority of the Pope to rule in his own possessions was recognized by the state. The territorial possessions of the Holy Father are called Vatican City and within its limits the Sovereign Pontiff's authority is recognized as supreme.

The Sovereign of this small state is His Holiness, the pope.

The government presently is administered by a Pontifical Commission of which His Eminence Agostino Cardinal Casaroli is President.

The Apostolic Nuncio to Italy is Most Rev. Romolo Carboni; Titular Archbishop of Sidone.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS

The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the Supreme Council or Senate of the Church. They are advisers of the Supreme Pontiff, and at the death of the Pontiff those under eighty years of age elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal- Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy. The present Cardinal Priests and Deacons are Archbishops or Bishops. The Sacred College of Cardinals, when complete formerly consisted of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, 50 Cardinal Priests and 14 Cardinal Deacons (Cf. Canon 231Sec.1), but the late Pontiffs, Pope John XXIII and Pope Paul VI named a number in excess of this total.

The Cardinal Bishops (except the Patriarch- Cardinals of the Oriental Rites), have as Titular Sees the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are: Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Palestrina, Sabina, Frascati, Velletri. The Cardinal Dean has united to his See the See of Ostia. The Cardinal Priests take their title from the "Titular Churches" to which they are appointed: the Cardinal Oeacons are appointed to other Churches called "Deaconries." The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon is First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating the new Pope if he is not already a bishop; the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning him. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the Administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

(The "creation" of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years, the "publication and proclamation." The Cardinal is then said to be "reserved in pectore," and when proclaimed, he takes the precedence according to date of creation.)

National Conference of Catholic Bishops

Address—1312 Massachusetts ave., N.W., Washington, D. C., 20005. ✆ 202-659-6600.

The National Conference of Catholic Bishops (NCCB) is a canonical entity operating in accordance with the Conciliar Decree. Christus Dominus. Its purpose is to foster the Church's mission to mankind by providing the Bishops of this country with an opportunity to exchange views and insights of prudence and experience and to exercise in a joint manner their pastoral office. The NCCB is the successor to the Annual Meeting of the Bishops of the United States, approved in the brief "Communes" issued by Pope Benedict XV, April 10, 1919 and in a special letter of Pius XI issued on August 10, 1927. The present NCCB statutes with some slight amendment are those originally approved by the Sacred Consistorial Congregation in a decree issued on June 22, 1922.

The National Conference of Catholic Bishops is composed of every Bishop, residential or titular, who serves the Church in the United States, its territories or possessions. Each Bishop has an active and passive voice in the Conference. Under certain conditions, enunciated in conciliar legislation, the National Conference of Catholic Bishops can initiate actions that are juridically binding on all the bishops of the country.

The National Conference of Catholic Bishops is presided over by a president who is elected by the general membership. Other officers of the organization are a vice president, secretary, treasurer and general secretary. The organization functions through forty-two different bishops' committees. The National Conference of Catholic Bishops is a distinct entity from the United States Catholic Conference. Its relationship to the USCC is that of a sponsoring organization.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

Catholic Relief Services-United States Catholic Conference, Inc. is the official overseas relief and development agency of the American Community. It was established in 1943 as War Relief Services-NCWC to administer to the needs of the victims of World War II. Since then, it has grown to be the largest private voluntary aid and development agency in the world. In 1978, its programs touched the lives of 14 million people in 86 countries with aid valued at 291 million.

CRS-USCC is separately incorporated and is directed by a Board of Trustees from the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops.

While, CRS-USCC receives support from various governmental and non-governmental organizations in about 20 countries, its basic source of funds is the annual collection in most U.S. dioceses on the fourth Sunday of Lent. This collection, known as the CRS Annual Appeal, replenishes the Bishops Welfare, Emergency and Relief Fund, from which the basic operational funds of CRS-USCC are disbursed. In addition, a family sacrifice and almsgiving program called Operation Rice Bowl provided 3.5 million in 1979. Of these funds 25 percent stay in the local parishes for the relief of the poor and hungry and 75 percent goes to CRS-USCC for its feeding and development projects. This program will be continued during 1980.

CRS-USCC is best known for its prompt and effective disaster relief efforts. A majority of its programs, however, are in the area of development. In 1979, besides its food programs, CRS-USCC supported 1,100 such projects valued at over 120 million. The annual Thanksgiving Clothing Collection is sponsored by CRS-USCC for the needy overseas.

CRS-USCC world headquarters are at 1011 First avenue, New York, N. Y., 10022. Most Rev. Edwin B. Broderick is Executive Director. Rev. Msgr. Andrew P. Landi, Assistant Executive Director.

International Liaison

The INTERNATIONAL LIAISON is the United States Catholic Coordinating Center for Lay Volunteer Ministries, and is an affiliate of the U.S. Catholic Conference. The specific purpose for which the INTERNATIONAL LIAISON was organized is to coordinate and facilitate the efforts of lay volunteer mission organizations by communicating to the laity the urgency of their role in the mission of the Church, and by maintaining constant contact with the U.S. dioceses and with religious communities to ascertain their immediate and projected needs for lay expertise in mission areas of the United States and of dioceses all over the world. Personnel needs for mission programs and activities are described in the annual publication THE RESPONSE, distributed throught the National Office and through Propagation of the Faith offices, campus ministry offices, volunteer agencies, religious communities, as well as through college and university guidance offices. The work of the National Office includes promotion, recruiting, and referral of candidates for service programs. Every year doctors, nurses teachers, mechanics, carpenters, engineers, community developers, environmental specialists, agronomists, nutritionists, secretaries, and many other dedicated persons share their professional expertise, their education and talents, and their Faith, with others who are in need. The INTERNATIONAL LIAISON is not a receiving agency or a sending agency itself, but serves as a center of reference, a switch-board operation between various agencies and programs and the personnel they endeavor to employ. Founded in 1963 by the Reverend George L. Mader, in order to channel lay volunteer mission programs and activities of the Archdiocese of Newark, the INTERNATIONAL LIAISON has expanded by extending its services to the laity of every diocese. In 1975 the organization became incorporated as the national Catholic Coordinating Center for Lay Volunteer Ministries, and in 1976 the INTERNATIONAL LIAISON Coalition was formed. Membership in the Coalition is based upon the various roles that missions and agencies have in relationship to the many and varied forms of volunteer lay ministry. Coalition members are representative of four geographical areas of the United States: East, South, Mid-West, West, and a fifth region comprising international and extra-continental groups. The INTERNATIONAL LIAISON works with and through the Coalition members to assist mission agencies in whatever way possible to expedite the decrees of Vatican Council II on direct lay participation in the total life of the Church. The National Office works in collaboration with the NCCB Laity Secretariat, the Pontifical Mission Aid Societies, the Catholic Church Extension Society, the Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions, the U.S. Catholic Mission Council, religious communities, and various national and international, Catholic and interreligious offices. The Most Rev. Joseph A. Francis, S.V.D. is the Episcopal Advisor. Mr. Matthew R.
